FAQ

Q: Are the leaf patterns on the tiles created using waterjet technology?

A: Yes, the intricate leaf patterns on these tiles are crafted using waterjet technology. This advanced cutting method allows for precise and detailed designs, resulting in a mosaic that showcases the artistry and craftsmanship of each tile.

Q: Is the Bianco Carrara marble used in these tiles of high quality?

A: Yes, the Bianco Carrara marble used in these tiles is of premium quality, and the material is quarried from Italy. Known for its timeless beauty and natural veining, Carrara marble is highly sought after in the world of interior design. The variations in the marble add depth and character to the tiles, creating a visually stunning focal point.

Q: Can this leaf mosaic backsplash tile be used for shower floors?

A: Sure. This leaf mosaic backsplash is a great choice for shower floors. The natural slip-resistant properties of the Carrara marble, combined with the intricate leaf pattern, create a shower floor that is not only functional but also visually stunning and luxurious.

Q: Do these tiles require any special maintenance or care?

A: Like any natural stone product, these tiles will benefit from regular cleaning and maintenance. It is recommended to use mild, pH-neutral cleaners specifically formulated for natural stone. Avoid using abrasive or acidic cleaners that can damage the marble's surface.
