FAQ

Q: Is the Starlight White Marble Tile suitable for wet areas like bathrooms?

A: Yes, this tile is ideal for wet areas, including bathroom walls and kitchen backsplashes, due to its resistance to moisture and stains.

Q: Can this mosaic tile be used on floors as well?

A: While the Starlight White Marble Tile is primarily designed for walls and backsplashes, it can be used on floors in low-traffic areas, provided it is properly sealed.

Q: Does your tile have a difference between the display photo and the real product when I receive it?

A: All products are taken in kind to try to show the color and texture of the product, but the stone mosaic is natural, and each piece may be different in color and texture, and due to the shooting angle, lighting, and other reasons, there may be a color difference between the real product you receive and the display picture, please refer to the real thing. If you have stricter requirements on color or style, we suggest you buy a small sample first.

Q: What is the thickness of your mosaic marble tile?

A: Normally the thickness is 10mm, and some are 8mm or 9mm, it depends on different production batches.
