Product Application

Generally, 3D mosaic tiles are mainly used for indoor and outdoor walls, especially some special ones.

This pattern can completely replace the previous floral thread and carry out various decorations with different effects. 3d stone tiles for the wall in the kitchen, for the floor in the bathroom, or even a small backsplash behind the wash basins will increase a new structure to the whole layout.

The biggest advantage of 3d marble mosaic tiles is that the colors can be replaced by different marble items flexibly, the processing procedures are not complicated and the combination is better than small particles.
