Product Detail:

Product Description

Natural marble stone mosaic is a great decorative building material with multiple textures.

The unique and wonderful decorative effect is a relatively small but not negligible design force in interior design, and every color combination could create a unique and special effect on your decoration. This marble mosaic design adopts waterjet machines to cut leaf shape chips and combine them into a wavy style. The materials we use are white wooden marble, grey wood grain marble, and anthens wood grain marble, which all originated from China.

The wavy style looks more beautiful with the leaf-shaped chips of grey marble mosaic and brown marble mosaic.

FAQ

Q: How to calculate the quantity for one square meter?

A: Firstly, please get the tile size from us. Take a 305x305mm tile as an example, it will need:
 $1/0.305/0.305=10.8$, it needs about 11 pieces in one square meter. Because the tiles will cut under installation, we suggest to buy more pieces than budget.

Q: Do you support goods return?

A: Generally speaking, we don't support goods return service. You will spend a high shipping cost to return the goods to us. Therefore, please select the right items before ordering, you can buy and look at the real sample first before making a decision.

Q: Do you have agents in our country?

A: Sorry, we don't have any agents in your country. We will let you know if we have a current customer in your country, and you can work with them if possible.

Q: How long can I get your reply about my inquiry?

A: Normally we will reply back within 24 hours, and within 2 hours during working time (9:00-18:00 UTC+8).
